DISTINGUISHED WOMEN OF CANCARE

ABOUT US

One in three women will be diagnosed with cancer in their lifetime. The Distinguished Women of CanCare is a group of dedicated and compassionate women comprised of professionals, community volunteers and business leaders who seek to support, inspire, and empower women touched by cancer with an ultimate goal to ensure that no woman battles cancer alone.

DISTINGUISHED WOMEN OF CANCARE GROUP PLEDGE

The Distinguished Women of CanCare serve as advocates for CanCare working to raise awareness for CanCare through volunteerism, key collaborations and partnerships and annual and quarterly social events, including an annual Tea Reception. Together, on behalf of women touched by cancer and their families, the Distinguished Women of CanCare, will dedicate their time, talent, and treasures to annual strategic initiatives that will enable CanCare to better serve and support women facing cancer.
